Awareness and Commitment for Breast cancer in the Health System

19 December 2014

Auditorium of the Ministry of Health, Via Giorgio Ribotta, 5 ROMA

The vision that is offered on the day of December 19th crosses national borders and is part of a framework at European level, offering insights on a wide horizon. This perspective is an important element for the Italian Presidency of the Council of the EU, also in the perspective of considering rules, directives and regulations that are increasingly focused in ensuring quality for the health services through an increased awareness and commitment in the context of breast cancer.
